ANNOUNCING EXCITING NEW ADDITIONS TO ALA MOANA CENTER'S EXTENSIVE LINEUP

HONOLULU, HAWAII – Ala Moana Center is thrilled to welcome new merchants to their lineup of over 290 stores and nearly 80 dining options. Recently opened and already available to shoppers are Bath & Body Works and Sand People. Joining Ala Moana Center later this year are Jollibee, Diane Von Furstenberg, Ecko UNLTD and Tricked Out Accessories. The new retailers will offer shoppers an even larger and more diverse selection of food offerings and merchandise.

“We are pleased to offer our shoppers a unique mix of national and international dining and shopping options.” said Scott Creel, senior marketing manager, Ala Moana Center. “We are always happy to bring in stores and restaurants that can offer everything from coastal living fashion to luxury couture, global cuisine, and more.”

Coming Soon

Ecko UNLTD – Level 3, Sears's wing

Marc Ecko's urban brand comes to Ala Moana Center. This innovative clothing line with strong roots in hip-hop and youth culture includes t-shirts, polos, jeans, shorts, watches and much more. Ecko Unltd. will open this Summer.

Jollibee – Makai Market Food Court

Opening this Fall, the largest fast-food chain in the Philippines comes to Makai Market. Jollibee is an American-style fast food restaurant with Filipino-inspired dishes. Enjoy Jollibee's signature menu items including Chickenjoy, Yumburgers, Jollibee Spaghetti, Peach Mango Pie and more.

Tricked Out Accessories – Street Level, Next to Hawaiian Island Creations

Tricked Out Accessories offers everything you need to ‘trick out’ your cellular device. Stop by the store for top quality faceplates, screen protectors, chargers, headsets and much more. Tricked Out Accessories will open this Summer.
